Pradeep – The life of Mine

January 26, 2022

Pradeep normally says hai every day, but that day he didn't even look at me. I felt awful… Then he said goodbye on his way home, and I felt a little better.😁

I talked with Pradeep until 11:30 p.m. for the first time in shalo history…Pradeep would text me once I had finished all of my messages.

"I like you a lottttt" I only used this phrase with one person whom I adore…

On June 5th, I saw into three of my favourite people at the same time. prici, Pradeep and sai…

I shares and discussing things with Pradeep just as much as I do with Prici…

I thought I wouldn't lose Jaga, but we haven't spoken since we started new school… I reasoned that it shouldn't have happened to my three best friends…

The majority of this week's conversations were with Pradeep and Sanjay…

Appa got a fever so I missed class. Prici called and spoke with me, and then Kalps and Pradee came to my house.

I introduced Pradee to Arnold and Anna. Then he gave the movie "Maatran."

He arrived in the evening with Reddy. I told him to sit, but he was rushing. I forced him to sit for ten minutes before copying a movie.😌

Pradee is special: I began talking to him at VBM school. His parents were very nice to me. They always welcome me into their home. Tamil Selvi, his sister, was adorable. He was sweet to both me and Prici. He appeared to be silent but was actually quite talkative. There was a fight every day, but it was a silly fights. As a friend, I adored him alottt and lot. I spent a significant amount of time with him. He was constantly surrounded by people, from children to adults, both at school and in the neighbourhood. He never hurt me in any way. With him, Chandana, Neeraja, Kalpana, and Vanmathi used to tease me. I was hurt, but I'm was not to bother with it.😌

Oh, my friend, I can resemble this with Pradeep in this film… ☺

I compare Mahesh Babu's eyes to Pradeep's…

I wished Pradee would perform the song "oorana oorukula una Pola yarum illa"…😅

"He mentioned me first among his five other guy friends," i felt great.🥰

I texted Naveen, pleading with him to attend their reunion with pradeep because they were not speaking.

20-2-13 I encouraged Pradee to read for exams for the first time and offered advice.😑

When Pradee, Sai, and Kiran arrived home, Sai had deleted all of his photos from my laptop.

I spoke with Pradee for the first time outside of school and home, and he was accompanied by Shyam.😂

I had been locked in my house. Pradeep was the first person to open the door for me, and he was talking to me. We talked about Cinima, friends, and family a lot. I gradually began to believe in him, which no other guy had done for me.

25-3-13

At 10:30, I received a message from him that said, "olunga msg Pannu 3 days uh olunga pesala," and it made me smile😄. And I was explaining to him about what I had said with uncle. I changed the subject because he was a little moody.
What amusement occurred here? My mind was filled with thoughts about him for nearly three days, beginning on 21-3-13 and ending when I received a text from him. I was upset and crying. I wanted him to come here to study.

2013-2014

10-8-13 I had a long-held desire to tie Pradeep's tie. I took his tie and knotted it.

I started a Facebook conversation with John Knight and asked Pradeep about him.

I felt that the friendship of these two guys was more than enough for me.

Pradeep and I had a text argument. He stated that I was no longer receiving text messages from him. He was with Ravi the next day and was staring at me. I was disappointed. Then, on his way home, he didn't see me and didn't say goodbye. I was upset. Then he came over and said good-bye. That put me on cloud nine, and he was adorable.☺

24-9-13 When Deepa arrived at our class, I saw her for the first time up close. I agree with prici's assessment that she was cuter than her brother.😄

I was afraid to speak with him and kept a safe distance from him, but I thought he was the only friend with whom I could share anything except my health problems. I was myself with him. As a result, I kept my distance from him. I feared that he would forget about me and move on with his life, so keeping a safe distance from him seemed prudent. Even though I had stopped looking for him through the window, we were both saw coincidentally.

He once asked to read my personal diary, which I agreed to. I suspected he was worried.

Pradeep was adorable in his sweater. He was the football team's captain. He represented the district and won the match. I wished I could watch him playing.

9-11-13 Pradeep arrived home at 10:45 and stayed with me until 4 p.m. During our conversation, he didn't even drink a drop of water.

If someone gets into a fight with him, I stop talking to them. It could have been Keerthi, Hari Nair, or John.
I wished I could not have a holiday because I wanted to see him whenever I had free time. It didn't always happen, so I didn't want to have it.
I couldn't speak to him for a week. I was saddened by my grandfather's death, but he called to inquire, and I missed him terribly.

4-1-14 Missed We used to talk for at least an hour after school. But I can't right now because revision exams have begun.

You were the primary reason I kept recharging my message booster. But I don't recharge these days because I don't want to bother you and I want you to succeed in your studies.

Called me and spoke to me. I missed him terribly and hoped that our three-month separation would not harm our friendship, as it had with Sai. I've always needed Pradeep's attention and affection, so the time between our exams shouldn't bother us.

I really missed him. He came into class and spoke with me, but I was completely focused on Prici and Prince. Karthik from the TV show "Office" looks exactly like him. Something personal is stuffed.

24-1-14 I went to EB House. Thambi and I were there. Pradeep paid us a visit. I enjoyed my time with him. He simply jumped the wall and entered. It was extremely intriguing. He irritated me by announcing that the 25th would be the last day we talked. I knew he wouldn't abandon me after the twelfth grade. We can't be separated. I knew there was no way our friendship could end. I might even forget about him, but he will not. I'm aware that I may make some male friends, but the bond I have with him cannot be shared with anyone else. I'm not going to give up on him. Sure, I'd be villi for him if he let someone else take my place.😌

I was upset with my parents over some personal issues. Pradeep unexpectedly called and spoke with me. I felt much better. I didn’t say anything about the problem because we were discussing other things. I simply thanked him for it☺. And he was blackmailing me by mentioning the 25th podaggg😑…

I felt bad seeing him get extra class after special class of us. I despised seeing him there. I prayed God not to give him that class.

After lunch, Idly, puthina chatni, and rice finishing with an empty lunch bag we got from him with an empty water bottle.🤦‍♀️
